

SM bulletin

Friday, 19 September 2014

General Administration

This week the General Administration started its plenary sessions.

Celebrating the Feast of the Holy Name of Mary

The Communities of the Marist Family General Houses in Rome met on 12 September for mass and lunch to celebrate the feast of the Holy Name of Mary. They were joined by the community of the Marist Brothers of Manziana who are completing the Roman part of their course of formation of formators and by other Marist friends. Marists all over the world have been celebrating the patronal feast of the Society and many have sent us the pictures of their festive gatherings

Teaching Philosophy in Fiji

Fr Andrea Volonino from the province of Europe (Italy) has been appointed to teach Philosophy in Suva, Fiji, for three years, beginning on the 1 January 2015. He will spend the next three months between New Zealand and Australia meeting Marists expert in Philosophy teaching and improving his English.

