Two Confreres Ordained to the Priesthood

On Saturday 13 December two young Marists were ordained to the Priesthood.

Fr Steve Oudodopoe (Oceania, New Caledonia) was ordained by Archbishop Michel Calvet in the cathedral of Noumea. Steeve is the first Paita-born priest. He has been appointed to the North Marist community of New Caledonia, which looks after four wide-spread parishes: three on the Mainland and one on the outer island of Belep.

The ordination of Fr Phil Bennenbroek (New Zealand) took place in his hometown Pukekohe in the presence of a great number of people, including many New Zealand Marists and diocesan clergy. Phil is appointed to the parish in Whangarei, in the North of New Zealand, where he started working at the beginning of this year.
