General Administration

In this week's meeting of the GA the Superior General presented his report on his recent visitation of the Irish Region of the Province of Europe; Fr Larry Duffy presented his plans for his visitation of Oceania and New Zealand from mid-January to mid-March; and further consideration was given to the proposed Endowment Fund for International Formation.

Fr Larry Duffy leaves on Sunday for his visitation of Oceania and New Zealand.

Fr Lote Raiwalui will be back in Rome next week after his holidays.

Confres on their way to La Neylière

Marists from over the world are on their way to La Neylière where on 16 January the Colinian Renewal starts. Eleven Marists from Africa, Asia, Europe, Mexico, Oceania and USA, will participate in the six months renewal program guided by a three member team composed of Frs Bernd Kordes, Bernard Boisseau and Ad Blommerde (all from Europe). The group will be hosted in the Futuna building, while the ongoing restructuring in the main building is advancing.

Filippino Marists Frs Chris Ganzon and Kevin Medilo with Fr François Drouilly in Paris.

Ordination in Futuna

On Saturday 20 December Fr Kosema Massei was ordained to the priesthood by Bishop Ghislain de Rasily. Kosema made his first profession in the Society in 2009 and did his Marist formation in Marist College Suva.

The Start of a Third Term as Secretary General

The members of the General Administration and the staff wish Fr Anthony Corcoran (Australia) well as he starts his third consecutive term as Secretary General on 1 January. Besides being the Secretary General Fr Tony is also Procurator General to the Holy See and Superior of the General House.

Deceased Confres

We pray for

Fr Cornelius Giris, aged 40, from the province of Oceania (Bougainville), who died on 3 December,

Fr Rafaele Qalovi, aged 57, from the province of Oceania (Fiji), who died on 5 December, and for

Fr Mariano Rizzuto, aged 83, from the province of the USA, who died on 18 December.

May they rest in peace.
