General Administration

Fr Larry Duffy started his visitation of the province of Oceania.

Colinian Renewal Starts in La Neylière

By the afternoon of Thursday 15 January the participants of the "Colinian Renewal Period" had arrived at La Neylière: Frs Andreas Rupprecht (Norway / Germany), Constant-Ephrem Amoussouga (Benin), Chris Ganzon (Philippines), Emanuele di Mare (Italy), Francisco Chauvet

(Mexico), Joel R. Grissom (United States), Kevin Medilo (Philippines), Pio Fong Waqavotuware (Fiji), Martin Yao Simna (Togo), Robert Taria (Bougainville). Also Lutoviko Manu (Tonga) will participate in the program but he is still in London waiting for his visa.

Here they are pictured in front of the "Tonga" building - one of the two annexes of La Neylière - where they will have their residence for the next five months: there is a room for everyone, a chapel, a meeting room and a living room. Frs Bernd Kordes and Bernard Boisseau will guide the group, assisted, when required, by the other community members, Frs Jean-Bernard Jolly and Ad Blommerde.

Vocational Camp in Cameroon

In Bamenda, Cameroon, 19 Marist aspirants participated in a four days Marist vocational camp, organised by Frs Roger Kasiama and Cyr Landry

Avalligbe along with Kenneth Njong Akua who was professed one year ago in Davao. The theme was "being called to Marist religious life". The days were filled with prayer, the development of several themes linked to religious life, personal conversation and listening. All participants returned back home happily and enriched with a better knowledge of the Society. The whole Society joins the African confreres in their prayers for a fruitful time of discernment for these young men.
