General Administration

The Superior General and his council are in plenary session this week. On the agenda were the following items:

- * Review of ARC
- * Chapter decisions on Marist Laity and Formation
- * Marist Studies

On Sunday Fr Tony Corcoran is going back to Australia, after 12 years of service to the General Administration as Secretary General, Procurator General and as the Superior of the General House. He will be farewelled with gratitude and sadness, this weekend by the members of the General House community and staff and other friends from Rome.

Tony was responsible for the redaction of the weekly SMbulletin. A special THANK YOU in name of all the readers!

MEETING ON THE MARIST SCHOOL IN DAKAR

This week a two day meeting took place at the General House on the new Marist school in Dakar, Senegal. From the district where present Frs Albert Kabala, Christian Abongbung and Martin Simna. Both Frs John Harhager as bursar general and Paul Walsh as the GA link person for Africa took part in the meetings. Also present was Mr

Yves Ruellan, from France, who has helped the project with his expertise. The meeting was an occasion to appreciate the Marist education project and to reaffirm the Marist commitment. On the other hand the urgent need to build 9 more classrooms arose and the need for funding. A roadmap was worked out for the future steps.

WEAVING LIFE ONLINE

The preparations for the International Gathering of Marist Youth which will be taking place in Guatemala City from 15 to 20 January 2019 are ongoing. The theme "Weaving Life", seeks to give participants an opportunity to reflect on the sense of community, solidarity, interiority and mission in daily life in faith and in the Marist charism.

The official website and social media of the International Gathering of Marist Youth are already set. All confreres are warmly invited to share and publicize the event through the communication channels available. You can find the various links under this article. Also the official songs "Tejiendo vida" and "Weaving life" have been released and can be found on the website. For those units who are participating with young people it may be good to know that soon information on payment for participating will be available.
